TO THE ELECTORS

Of the Electoral District of Eastern Assiniboia.

GENTLEMEN:

No doubt you are aware that I have been offered a seat in the Dominion Cabinet, made vacant by the untimely and greatly to be deplored death of the late Honorable Thomas White. After due consideration and with a knowledge of the great responsibility attached to the office, that of "Minister of the Interior," I have accepted, and I now come before you to ask you to permit me to represent in the House of Commons, the important Electoral District of Eastern Assiniboia, in which a vacancy has taken place through the elevation of Mr. Perley to the Senate of Canada.

The kindly feelings and promises of support, which have already reached me from all parts of your district, give me confidence that my wishes will be favorably entertained by the large majority of the Electors.

The bulk of the work in connection with the Department of the Interior emanates from the west, and especially from the Northwest Territories, and it is my wish (as I consider it my duty) now that an opportunity is afforded me, to represent a constituency, the most populous in the Territories, among whose people I have lived for the last six or seven years, and who have given me on so many occasions proof of their confidence in my late administration of the affairs of the Territories, while occupying the honorable and responsible position of Lieutenant-Governor.

The granting of representation in the Parliament of Canada, a few years ago, to the Territories, afforded the people of the West a more ready means of communication with the Central Government than they had previously had. Now that their demands for a Minister to represent the country west of Lake Superior have been granted, a still more important means of communication is available, and I take this opportunity in the event of my representing you in Parliament, of asking all who are interested in the development and progress of our great heritage, irrespective of Party, to communicate with me freely upon any subject which they may consider of importance.

The time before the election takes place being very short, I will be prevented from visiting many of those who, I know, are anxious to meet me, but I shall endeavor to visit the outlying districts, with which I am not so familiar as with those convenient to the line of Railway, and thus meet as many as possible of the settlers, and, at the same time, gather information with regard to their districts.

It will be impossible for me to enter, in this address, upon the many questions in connection with the Territories, which must necessarily come before me as Minister of the Interior, and in which you are so greatly interested. My long residence in the Western Country, my intimate connection with its affairs and knowledge of its wants and capabilities, coupled with a sympathetic feeling which western men bear one to the other will, I trust, enable me to some extent, to earn the high opinion expressed throughout the country of my qualifications for the office which I am called upon to administer, and you may rest assured that I will use every effort to advance the interests of this great country.

I have the honor to be,
Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

E. DEWDNEY.

The North-West.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

Written for THE PROGRESS:

Regina, Aug. 28, 1888.

Not long ago the St. John Telegraph replying to an article in the Regina Leader referring to the adverse seasons experienced in the Northwest, sarcastically observed that it did not understand what that had to do with it, that the Northwest had already cost the eastern taxpayer a large amount of money and it was about time some return should be made on the investment. The Telegraph did not see or pretended not to understand why adverse seasons should effect the farmers of the Northwest any more than those of any other country. It did not seem to realize that the pioneer settlers of a new country are not as well able to stand a bad season or two as are the old settlers of a old country, who have their eggs in an number of baskets. To show what the country can produce when the farmer is in a position to repeat his experiments year after year, even after two or three adverse seasons have discouraged many of those who could not stand a bad season because their all was staked in the result. I may mention the case of Henry Fisher of Bayswater Farm.

This gentleman has for the past four or five years cultivated nearly a whole section. In fact, he has had under the plow the largest quantity of land in this district by an one proprietor. His farm is situated about three miles from Regina. Until last summer disaster seemed to have followed his efforts, the summers were unfavorable. A sirocco like wind seems to have scooped the crops and grow they could not. Last summer, however, was a notable exception. It was the beginning of a new cycle. Bayswater Farm turned out a good crop.
Mr. Fisher had two hundred and twenty acres in wheat, oats and barley and the result was fairly satisfactory. This year he has three hundred acres and such fine fields of wheat, oats and barley have seldom been seen in any country. The crop is a luxuriant one.
He expects 25 bushels of wheat, 40 of oats and 50 of barley. He is evidently under the mark, but he prefers the safe side. I mention his case in particular in order to show what perseverance will do.
True it is not every man that can persevere, because it takes means to fight bad seasons, yet Mr. Fisher's case shows much pluck and proportionally his example might be followed by others. The old Mis-souriian who told his son Bill to get a good farm, gave him this advice:
"Try one there and nuther yonder and then nuther until you get the kind o' land you want," and so with the seasons. Pluck is needed in Assiniboia and those who stick to it will eventually succeed. And this brings up the question of so much land to be seen far and wide, and so little immigration. The other day I came across a newly arrived immigrant, who is at present employed at Bayswater Farm, getting wages—wages indeed that would scare the average Ontario farmer. This man is unusually intelligent for his class and we discussed the subjects of immigration generally. He said he was from the north of Scotland where there were hundreds and even thousands of good and worthy people who would emigrate to this country if they had the means.
He thought that the Government should do something to start these people. Said he it is a pity to see hundreds of miles of prairie and hardly a settler's cabin to be seen.
If the people I know only had a chance to come out, I am sure they would succeed. Who doubts it?
For they are people who can even lower the standard of the small comforts they are possessing and carve out new homes on the boundless prairies of the Northwest. The country wants the people badly.
Surely there should be no difficulty in getting them here. Mr. Love has undoubtedly read what Thomas Caryle has written on the subject.
Why should not a system of immigration be devised that will bring about the desired result. Greater achievements have been accomplished than this, and the immigration question must be handled in the light of modern experience.

The Inland Revenue Department have arrived at the conclusion that extra Manitoba hard wheat shall be sound and well cleaned, weighing not less than sixty-two pounds per bushel and should be composed of at least 85 per cent. of hard Red Fyfe wheat grown in Manitoba or

the Northwest Territories of Canada.
No. 1 Manitoba hard wheat must be
sound and well cleaned, weighing sixty pounds to the bushel, and must be composed of at least two-thirds of hard Red Fyfe wheat grown in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories of Canada. No. 2 hard wheat must be sound and reasonably cleaned, weighing not less than fifty-eight pounds per bushel and it must be composed of at least two-thirds Red Fyfe wheat grown in Manitoba and the Northwest Territories of Canada.

No. 1 hard White Fyfe wheat must be sound and well cleaned, weighing not less than sixty pounds to the bushel and it must be composed of not less than sixty per cent. of hard White Fyfe wheat grown in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, and it must not contain more than twenty-five per cent of soft wheat.

No. 1 Manitoba Northern wheat must be sound, well cleaned, weighing not less than fifty pounds to the bushel; it must be composed of not less than 50 per cent of hard Red Fyfe wheat grown in Manitoba or
the Northwest Territories of Canada.
No. 1 oats must be sound and plump, clean and free from other grain.

No. 2 oats must be sound and reasonably cleaned and reasonably free from other grain.

No. 3 oats shall be sound but not cleaned enough to be graded No. 2.
Rejected oats are to include such as are damp, unsound, dirty or from any cause unfit to be graded as No. 2.
During the past day or two Mr.
Justice Richardson and the Supreme Court staff have been kept very busy. The case of Theodore Goyet, who was charged with abstracting Baker & Co's cash box from the store together with its contents amounting to nearly $1,300 in cash and notes, occupied all of Monday.
Goyet was defended by Mr. T. C.
Tolmston, Mr. D. L. Scott appearing for the Crown. The jury acquitted the prisoner, giving him the benefit of the doubt. Justice Richardson in discharging the prisoner, reminded him that it might have been the other way and he said take care not to come here again.

The Legare claims commission closed on Friday.

INDIAN HEAD.

—Mr. Reilly, of Regina, has the contract for the experimental farm buildings, and is making preparations for their erection.

—Prof. Saunders has been staying here for a few days, and has made an extended trip all around this part of the country, examining the various crops, etc. He expressed himself as highly delighted with the prospects of a good harvest, and the future of the country in general.

The work done on the experimental farm and the appearance of the many kinds of trees gave him great satisfaction. The Professor also visited the Indian reserve. The progress made by the Indians under the care and management of agent W. S.

Grant were noted with extreme pleasure, their fine crops of both grain and vegetables rivaling their white neighbors in quality. Mr.

McKay drove Prof. and Mrs. Saunders out to the mission, and the drive along the north shore of the lake in the beautiful Qu'Appelle valley was pronounced by the Prof.

and his wife as the most beautiful in the Northwest.

BROADVIEW.

—Corporal Cochrane, the Mounted Police representative in charge of Broadview Station, believes in doing his duty as far as carrying out the law is concerned. He has all freight searched when the trains stop long enough, and lucky is the passenger who is able to hide his smuggled treasure from the policeman's searching eye. He it was who detected Mr. Blackwood's little game of billiards as "ginger ale," a carload of beer to Regina and another to Calgary dispensers of the "ardent."

The first carload, seized on the 11th inst., contained twenty-nine barrels of "aerated water" consigned to two Regina hotels. Strong beer to the extent of 420 bottles were distributed through this. Its destiny was to fertilize the soil near the Regina

Police Station, and this was made its last resting place on August 14.

The carload for Calgary contained

2,500 bottles of beer, also from Blackwood Bros.

On Friday night week a keg of whiskey was found on the eastern train. It was neatly fitted into a specially made valise. The Corporal was naturally unable to find the owner. Two kegs were found the

THE EARTH BRINGS FORTH ABUNDANTLY.

Talk about the crops anywhere in Manitoba or the Northwest, there is nothing to excel the Qu'Appelle district, and few to equal it for productiveness and earliness. The experience of the past six years goes to show that this portion of the Northwest is from a week to ten days earlier than Manitoba in ripening all kinds of grain, and therefore much less liable to injury from frost.
Though we have had one or two unfavorable seasons owing to lack of rain-fall, taken altogether, this district has grown more first class No. 1 hard per acre than any other portion of Manitoba or the Northwest.
This season has been most favorable for the development of the best Red Fife wheat. We had fine weather in the spring for seeding though a little late. Then we had numerous showers of rain, alternated with warm sunny weather which produced rapid growth.
When the heads and grain were forming, we had a great deal of rain and cool weather which tended to make a very hard and plump berry, and have had glorious harvest weather which still continues. The yield of wheat in this vicinity will average this year upwards of thirty bushels per acre. We have heard of some instances that are expected to go forty. While from Manitoba we hear reports of frost, the gardens in this district are still as green as ever. We regret to learn from a letter received at this office from the Pembina mountain country, that fields of wheat were so badly frozen there, that they will not be worth cutting. This is indeed bad news. Our farmers are rushing their harvest smiling and happy because of the heavy yield. From enquiry as well as from home-stalks visited, we learn that many fields of grain will take four pounds and over of binding twine per acre, and that the average will be something over three pounds. It is impossible as yet to give figures in detail, and we would suggest that each coun-ciller for this municipality obtain for his ward figures of the number of acres of the various crops sown, the yield per acre, and other information that will be valuable to show the productiveness of our soil. We will be pleased to publish any information of that kind.

THE COMING ELECTION.

As the 12th September approaches, there are no indications that the Hon. E. Dewdney, the Minister of the Interior, will be opposed in his candidature for the representation of Eastern Assiniboia, made vacant by the elevation of Mr. Peley to the Senate. Mr. Dewdney is visiting the portions of the electoral district at a distance from the railway and is meeting with hearty receptions everywhere from the electors of all shades of politics. His election by acclamation is a foregone conclusion. This is as it should be for various reasons. The people of this portion of the Dominion have demanded representation in the Dominion Cabinet, and it has been granted. Mr. Dewdney is himself a most eligible candidate for the position. He is possessed of superior executive ability and an intimate knowledge of the country respecting which the duties of his office have to do. The people of this country feel that in Mr. Dew-dney, the Northwest will have a friend in the Cabinet who is possessed of a desire to assist the people and direct them in the development of the greater Canada.

We may look for a broad and liberal policy in connection with the Department of the Interior and its administration of Northwest affairs.

AGAIN WE SAY ORGANIZE?

Elsewhere in our columns will be found an appeal from the Northwest Prohibitory Alliance to the Temperance people of the Northwest Territories to organize for the purpose of resisting the aggressions of the liquor interests. The Prohibitionists of the country have been responding in fancied security at what was supposed to be the certainty that so long as the Territories Act was in force it would guarantee them immunity from the evils of the rum traffic, and that the Dominion Parliament would never relax its prohibitive provisions without first taking a vote of the people thereon. While feebly protesting at the issue of the domestic permits that have been the source of some evil, Temperance men generally did not trouble themselves very much about the strenuous efforts of the whiskey party to gain a foothold in the country. But the recent action of Lieut.-Governor Royal in introducing the principle of license in direct opposition to the recently expressed wish of the electors, was almost like a thunderbolt from a clear sky. The issue of permits to sell beer, though contrary to the spirit and intention of the Territorial Act, shows that the Lieut.-Governor can control or license the liquor traffic in all its phases just as he pleases.
If he has the power to grant permits to sell four per cent beer, he can license the sale of liquors of any percentage. Such power should never have been vested in the Lieut.
Governor. True, it has not been very much abused heretofore, but it appears that it may be made the means of controverting the will of the people by imposing upon us all the horrors of the rum trade, should the Lieut.-Governor desire to be so impolitic. While there lies beneath us such a volcano that may at any moment burst forth at the will of one man, will Temperance men, aye, all true Northwest citizens, remain passive and say by their inaction that the will of the people shall not be heard? It is the duty of every man who has the welfare of the country at stake to prepare to fight for Prohibition and unite in organizing in defence of our homes.
Again we would urge that meetings be held in every locality and branches of the Northwest Prohibitory Alliance formed, so that delegates may be appointed and a grand rally made at the forthcoming Temperance convention.

For hair-splitting in the most delicate manner apply to the Qu'- Appelle Vidette. If a man suggests another for a public position is he thereby debarred from taking it himself if offered to him? There is nothing inconsistent in the statements quoted, but most anything will suit the Vidette for a slap at THE PROGRESS. But that sort of thing seems to please the Vidette and does nobody else any harm.

NATIONAL PROHIBITION CONVENTION AT MONTREAL.

HON. MR. FOSTER'S ADDRESS.
Hon. G. E. Foster, who was the next speaker, made the address of the evening. It was clear, forcible, and argumentative, and left no uncertainty as to the opinion of the speaker. At times the Minister of Finances raised considerable opposition by throwing cold water on the more ardent spirits of the convention, but he took the interruptions good-naturedly and turned them to account. He referred in his opening to the fact that he had laboured for the temperance cause for more than a quarter of a century. (Applause.) When he had expressed his intention of coming down to this meeting, a good friend of his had said: "Now, don't make any mistake; just make a good general speech and don't go into details, or you will be criticized." (Laughter.)—but he was of a critical turn of mind himself, and did not mind being criticized. (Applause.) He was not going to indulge in any platitudes, but was going to express his views honestly and fairly. (Applause.) His first words to his temperance friends would be one of caution, not to allow themselves to be coddled or elated into the belief that they were going to achieve success in a very few weeks. They would not do it. (Hear, hear.) Men who spoke in that way did not know the real position of things. Twenty-five years ago, when he espoused the temperance cause, he thought in his youthful enthusiasm, that success would crown it in a very few years, but experience had taught him that the hardest, strongest, and deadliest battle was yet to be fought. (Applause.) Was he without hope? Decidedly not; but it was a hope based on calm and sober judgment of the difficulties in the way. One of the speakers had said that a prohibitory law ought to be, and therefore it should be. That was true, but not altogether practical at present. What ought to be should be true, but what ought to be is not is equally true. It was by no means true that because a prohibitory law ought to be now that it could be now. (Hear, hear.) Under a democratic system of government it was impossible to have any law unless the majority of the people were in favor of it, and until temperance workers could get a majority of the people to declare in favour of a prohibitory law it would not be law. However ardent they might be or however ardent he himself might be, it was practically impossible to have such a law until the majority of the people were in its favour. (Hear, hear.) He believed that under all the peculiar circumstances they were just as far advanced to-day as they possibly could have been. (Chorus of voices, "No, no.")

MR. FOSTER:—Yes, gentlemen, I maintain it is true. They had made their way through grievances and opposition to where they were today, and had made splendid progress. (Applause.) He urged them to make no mistakes, and, above everything, not to forget the educa-tive work. They might talk law, but they could get no law until the majority had been educated up to it.
Temperance people would never make a greater mistake if they sought to have a law manufactured instead of educating public opinion that would crystallize into law.
(Applause.) He defended the politicians, whom he said would compare favourably with any other class, and said fault should not be found with the politician but with the constituency. He had been asked when there would be a prohibition majority in Parliament, and his reply was, that just so soon as the majority were educated up to prohibition they would have a prohibitory law, but not before. He hoped, in conclusion, that the deliberations of the Convention would be guided by the one great thought to make Canadian homes free from the assaults of the terrible evil of intemperance. The speaker was heartily applauded on retiring.

While the subject of fortifications as being discussed in the House of Representatives some references of the usual order were made to Canada. Mr. Nutting, of Oswego, proposed that half a million dollars be appropriated for the erection of a dry dock and proper appliances at some point on Lake Ontario for the building of armed ships. It seems Mr. Nutting has got it into his head that Canada is preparing to sweep down on the American eagle and deprive it of some of its tail feathers, whereas the fact is that the Canadians are a peaceably-disposed people, having no such intention. Major Farquhar, of Buffalo, went so far as to declare that the State of New York, independently of any other state, "would take the contract to take care of Canada and her five million people inside of sixty days." Sixty days is rather a short time for the good people of Canada to sell out and vacate the premises, and it is to be hoped that the valiant Major Farquhar will do nothing rash. We might all take to the woods, to be sure, but this would be inconvenient, not to say uncomfortable.
"A country that has passed through a war and possesses a million veterans who have worn the blue and the gray asks no odds from Canada or her parent Government," declares Major Farquhar, no doubt expecting every one of us to jump into bed and cover his head with the blankets. The gallant Major should keep cool. This is the silly season, and if he over-exerts himself now he will not be able to take command of his army of veterans when the hour strikes.—Mont-

Northwest Prohibitory Alliance.

The Northwest Prohibitory Alliance was organized at the Preliminary Temperance Convention held at Regina on the 22nd November, 1887. A copy of the constitution is herewith enclosed.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE.

Qu'Appelle, Aug. 28, 1888.

DEAR SIR:

At a meeting of the Executive of the Northwest Prohibitory Alliance held at Regina on Saturday, 21st July last, a Committee was appointed to prepare and circulate an appeal to our Temperance friends in the Northwest to organize in every locality for the coming contest. The Committee beg to submit the following for your consideration:

The result of the late elections to the Northwest Legislature was that nearly every one of the twenty-two members chosen is pledged to sustain the present law until such time as the people may be given an opportunity to vote on the question. One of the first acts of His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Royal was to introduce the principle of license by granting permits to sell four per cent. beer. This was directly contrary to the expressed wish of the people, and prompt and aggressive organization is imperatively necessary to resist this and protest against any other concessions.

It is proposed to hold a

And the first annual meeting of the Northwest Prohibitory Alliance at Regina in the second week of the coming session of the Legislative Assembly, and it is imperative that such Convention should be as representative as possible.

Let meetings for organization be called in every locality, and let one or more delegates be appointed to attend the convention. As soon as the date of the meeting of the Assembly is announced you will be notified of the exact date of the Convention. It is the duty of every man who is opposed to the introduction of the License System into the Northwest Territories to see that his own locality has at least one representative at our Convention.

Let there be a Grand Rally so that our Temperance vote may be united to carry into effect the resolutions, etc., that may be adopted at that meeting.

In behalf of the cause of Temperance and Prohibition.

G. H. V. BULYEA, President Alliance.
JAMES WEIDMAN, Secretary
G. B. MURPHY,
Committee.

FATHERS OF CONFEDERA- TION.

We will club the Winnipeg Sun and THE QU'APPELLE PROGRESS for $1.75 per annum including the above valuable picture.

The Winnipeg Sun has arranged for a supply of the historic picture entitled "The Fathers of Confederation." It is a delightful engraving of artistic finish, 26 1/2 inches by 37 1/2 inches in size. It embodies life-like portraits of thirty-four of the leading men of Canada in 1864, including Sir John A. Macdonald, Sir George E. Cartier, T. D'Arcy McGee, Hon. George Brown, Hon.
Oliver Mowat, Sir Charles Tupper, and Sir E. P. Tache. The scene is in the conference room at Quebec, the windows of which overlook the harbor and shipping, and the occasion is the conference which resulted in the confederation of the colonies in 1867. It is a charming work of art, and possesses great historic interest. It is given free to every yearly subscriber to the weekly Sun, the price of which has been reduced to $1 per annum.

—Mr. Keith, Indian Agent at Touchwood, was in town during the past week.

—What is the reason that the tanks it was intended to put in are not being proceeded with?

—The front of Mr. A. S. Empey's store has been repainted, and now presents a handsome appearance.

—Would it not be wise for people to be a little more law-abiding, and then they would need a little less law.

—There is a movement on foot here among the churches for holding an open air union service of song on Thanksgiving Day.

—Every available old and new reaper has been pressed into service for the cutting of the heavy crop of wheat in this vicinity. A larger number of new reapers could have been sold here this season.

—D. S. Davies was arraigned before Judge Richardson, at Regina, on Tuesday, and pleaded guilty to the charge of larceny of $1800 from Mr. S. H. Caswell of this place. Sentence was deferred.

—Messrs. D. H. McMillan and Bro. have purchased a well auger, and will commence next week boring their well down to where there is water that will supply all their requirements.

—Messrs. R. Johnston and C. McDougall have brought from British Columbia a fine band of forty mares and colts. They are well bred, and are superior to any imported heretofore. They are for sale or exchange for cattle.

—Mr. A. Sutherland's photograph studio here will be closed on Saturday evening. Any person wishing negatives taken will require to call before that date, as Mr. Sutherland is about leaving for Southern Manitoba.

—The reservoir is proving to be one of our most valuable improvements. Since the rains have ceased, water is being hauled from it for washing purposes, and the mill is using it for the boilers. It is surprising the amount of water the reservoir contains.

—The residents of this municipality are bound to prevent the running of prairie fires if possible. Systematically arranged fire breaks were plowed for statue labor in almost every direction, and those interested have made the circuits complete as possible on their own account. It is important that there should be a full meeting of the members, as a number of matters of great interest to the town are to be brought before the meeting. Among other things to be considered will be a scheme to promote immigration to this municipality. It is proposed to appoint Mr. C. E. —The latest thing in needles is the calyx-eyed needle. It is made so that it will thread without the annoying process of passing the end of the cotton through the eye. The cotton is slipped through a slit above the eye, it being so made that while it will slip in it will not pull out again. Mr. John Grieve is agent for them.

—Conflicting reports have gone abroad respecting the injury done to the crops by the frost on August 16th and 17th. In many sections around us no damage whatever has been done, and better wheat, oats, barley, peas and flax could not be desired. In many places not even the tenderest garden stuff was touched. But in other districts, for instance north of the Qu'Appelle valley, near Balcarres and in the P. M. Colony some fields of wheat are seriously injured. Oats are reported as all right. The quantity of wheat that will be marketed at Qu'Appelle and Indian Head will be very large and of the very best quality; and as prices rule high our farmers feel in fine spirits.

To the Editor of the Progress,
Sir: I would like to say a few words in regard to the manner in which the Qu'Appelle people treated the C. P. R. excursionists on the 21st inst. In the first place, Qu'Appelle agreed to have a "brass band" to play during the day; where was it? They agreed to fix up swings, put up stoves, etc. We sent ropes from Moose Jaw for the swings and the Qu'Appelle committee never took the trouble to see that they were put up; where were the stoves?

The dancing platform they agreed to put up was neither "put up" or "let alone," and when I went to see the gentleman who had, or supposed to have charge of fixing up the grounds, all the said gentleman could do was to insult me, and most generously offer me fifty cents to fix up what he should have seen was done. The committee never bothered themselves at all to see how things were going, and did not even see that a barrel of water was on the grounds. Perhaps they thought if they sent water up, less beer would be sold; any way they all through acted "shylock," and I am quite certain they will not again be asked to do anything for the C. P. R. Picnic, as next year it will be held elsewhere. In conclusion I might say that it was easy to be seen who reaped the benefit of the excursion and I think the people should have crawled out of their shell and done a little more to make the day pass pleasantly for the many excursionists, and not been quite so eager after the almighty dollar.

Yours, etc.

T. E. BIRBECK,
Sec. of Committee.

FINANCIAL DISTRICT MEETING.

METHODIST CHURCH.
The sixth annual financial district meeting of the Regina district was held at Broadview on Aug. 8th and 9th.

Present: Rev. Alfred Andrews, chairman of the district in the chair, Rev. F. Daniels, financial secretary, Regina; Rev. W. C. Bunt, Moose Jaw; Rev. John Pooley, Broadview; Rev. S. E. Colwill, Fort Qu'Appelle; Rev. A. Wooley, Rev. J. W. Ridd, Grenfell; Rev. R. Halsall, Wolsley, and T. L. Palmer, Esq., Broadview. Several ministers and laymen were prevented by great distance from being present.

Grants were asked for from the missionary board for the various missions of the district. The town of Regina has resolved this year to become a self-supporting station and asked no grant. Considering the newness of the field and the small membership this is a very praiseworthy effort on the part of the congregation.

An arrangement was adopted for apportioning the amount to be raised for the superannuation fund and for general Conference expenses. The following plan of appointments for missionary meetings was agreed upon:

Regina, Dec. 9th and 10th, Deputation Revs. Andrews and Bunt.
Wascana, Dec. 11th, Deputation Revs. Daniels and Bunt.

Qu'Appelle, Oct. 14th, 17th and 18th, Deputation Revs. Wooley and Daniel.

Fort Qu'Appelle, Oct. 14th, 15th and 16th, Deputation Revs. Andrews and Wooley.

P. M. Colony, Deputation Revs. Colwill, Halsall and Willis.

Wolsley, Oct. 21st and 22nd Deputation Pooley and Ridd.

Moose Jaw, Sept. 10th, Deputation Rev. J. McLean, Ph. D.

Saskatoon, Oct. 7th and 8th, Deputation Revs. Howard and Peters.

Prince Albert, Oct. 14th and 17th Deputation Howard and Peters.

EDUCATIONAL MATTERS.
It was decided to put forth special efforts on behalf of Wesley College to be started this fall in Winnipeg under the direction of Rev. J. W. Sparling, B.A., President, and a deputation composed of Revs. A. Andrews, G. Daniel and Messrs. Richardson and G. H. V. Bulyea were appointed to visit the various stations to deliver suitable addresses and solicit contributions on this behalf.

How Water May Flash Into Ice.
(See Scientific American.)
Three times during the winter I have seen water instantaneously converted into ice. I have read that water could be reduced to a temperature lower than 32 degrees Fahrenheit and still not for a moment, and have seen water raised above 212 degrees Fahrenheit which, when agitated, suddenly exploded with such force as to nearly empty the vessel containing it. The instantaneous formation of ice I saw in a large tin pail partly filled with water. There was ice on the floor, cups partly filled with water held thick coverings of ice, but the water in the pail was as clear as crystal. Intending to dip a cupful, I suddenly struck the edge of the pail, and quick as a flash of light there shot from the sides of the pail toward the center, long, slender needles of ice, beautifully marked on their edges. These needles in a few seconds grew until the water, for an inch or so below the surface, was closely packed with these delicate shoots, which, when my cup reached them, easily shattered.

Send Him to "Cretaceous."
(London Letter.)
Even the queen of England and empress of India has to submit to "orders" from the Ministry of the Interior. Her Majesty got her feet wet walking in the gardens at Windsor one day, whereupon Sir William Jenner went down at once, ordered the queen to go into warm rooms, and then peremptorily forbade her to leave them.

Tough Old Chaps.
Many instances are cited by a statistician in the endeavor to prove that nearly the majority of the men who live to a great old age are those who suffered unusual hardships as soldiers or sailors.

London Notes.
By far the best-looking men in London today are the police. The soldiers don't compare with them. The hardy ones have evidently induced many farmers' sons and sons of superior families to enter the police force who are well educated and have excellent manners. Let a London policeman review only $1 a week. He has a pension, though, if he stays on.

The Largest Crane.
The new crane now being erected at Hamburg will have a lifting capacity of 14 tons. This will be the largest crane in operation on the continent, the next in size being the one now working at Antwerp, and which lifts 12 tons.

Cure a "Complex" Ailment.
(Medical Exchange.)
According to a careful report in Complex Remedies coffee is a complex ailment. It is a complex ailment, and the phenomena of nutrition and the general functions. It renders the organism capable of consuming and destroying larger quantities of nitrogenous substance, and may consequently be regarded as an indirect source of available energy.

The seas of India and China now have twelve tidal observatories, each of which is moved to a new spot every fifth year.

Wanted His Change.
There was an amusing scene in one of the city churches Sunday. A family party of four occupied one seat, and the youngest, a boy of tender years, was entrusted with a nickel for the contribution plate. It had been the custom for each to give a penny. In good time the collector passed around. The little boy piously dropped his 5 cents with the other coins on the plate. The collector started away, but was called back by the boy, who demanded: "Gimme my change." "Your change—what change?" asked the puzzled plate-bearer. "My," responded the future shaver of noses. "I give you 5 cents, an' there's on'y four of us here. I want a penny." The youngster did not receive the rebate demanded, but when he arrived home he was given a lecture on contribution-etiquette which he will recall even when a street-car conductor yells "tickets."—Albany Journal.
